What is GenWell Weekend?

GenWell Weekends are bi-annual events designed to encourage Canadians to connect face-to-face, enhancing happiness and health. This initiative provides an excuse, reminder, and permission for people to reconnect with others.

How You Can Get Involved:

Proclaim GenWell Weekend: Declare September 20th-22nd as GenWell Weekend in your community to raise awareness about loneliness and promote human connection.

Share the Message: Inform local business, campus, and community leaders about GenWell Weekend and encourage their participation.

Show Your Support: Record a short video message supporting GenWell Weekend to inspire other leaders to join the movement.

Friendly Challenge: Engage in a fun challenge with another community to see who can inspire more connections.

Toolkits for Action:

We've prepared toolkits to help you plan and promote meaningful connections in your community.

Register Now: Registration opens on August 20th at www.GenWellWeekend.org. Register your plans and enter to win prizes from GenWell partners.

Together, we can build a more connected Canada where everyone thrives.

Thank you for your support.
